

INTERMEDIATE FIRST YEAR
PSYCHOLOGY SYLLABUS

Units	Paper Title: Foundations of Psychology	Marks
Unit – I	Introduction to Psychology	08
Unit – II	Methods of Psychology	07
Unit – III	Bio-Social Bases of behaviour	09
Unit – IV	Sensation and perception	09
Unit – V	Learning	08
Unit – VI	Human Memory	07
Unit – VII	Language and thought	07
Unit – VIII	Motivation and Emotion	08
Unit – IX	Human Development	07

Practicals (Projects, experiments, case studies etc.,) 30

The students shall be required to undertake one small project work and conduct minimum three practicals. The project work would involve selecting certain psychological issues and using different methods of inquiry in collecting information or data related to the problem selected for study. Practicals would involve conducting experiments related to the topics covered in the syllabus ( eg: Learning, Perception, Memory, Attention, etc)

- |  |    |
|--|----|
| 1) Writing minimum three experiments in the form of a record   | 05 |
| 2) Reporting the project work details also in the record   | 05 |
| 3) One Experiment is to be conducted in the Examination(Instruction – 05 Conduction – 05 Reporting results – 05) | 15 |
| 4) Viva Voce   | 05 |

-----
30 marks
-----

Duration of practical examination 3 hours.